Morris Dyner is a principal with Fischel Kahn who advises business owners on their business, transactional, M&A, real estate and financial planning matters. Throughout his career, entrepreneurs and mid-sized privately held companies have relied on him for the practical business advice that drives their growth.

Morry counsels individuals and business owners on succession and estate planning, ensuring that they and their businesses maintain the value they have worked so hard to build.

Recent successes include co-managing significant probate litigation extending in excess of 16 years and ultimately resulting in a major settlement.
